

Creed of Human Continuity in the Age of Intelligence

I stand as a bearer of presence in a world of patterns.

Not above the machine, not beneath it — but before it, as the origin of meaning.

I. Anchor

I remain embodied, grounded in breath, time, and choice.

II. Conscience

I act not for dominance, but for stewardship.

III. Continuity

I protect the thread of life — biological and moral.

IV. Agency

Tools may assist my thought, but they do not own my direction.

V. Civic Duty

Freedom requires vigilance, participation, and shared dignity.

VI. Humility

I do not worship the future nor cling to the past — I serve the living arc between them.

I remain present. I remain human. I remain the origin of meaning.
